

UTM
UNIVERSITI TEKNOLOGI MALAYSIA

CHAPTER 8

ETHIC OF COUNSELING

It is a guideline for the counselor and as a reference for the counselor in some issue. It started the standard guideline for the counselor to built their relationship with client and others. This code is based on the important value such as dignity, personal need and right.

PART A

1. Each member should improve counseling profession.
2. Good practice that suitable with local custom and religion.
3. Member needed to give public the right and accurate information and also keep client identity as secret.

PART B : RELATIONSHIP OF COUNSELING

In the relationship of counseling, the counselor should respect the client and get rid of taking advantage from the client.

1. As a responsible counselor, one should keep the secret about the client.
2. The data that get from the counselor can be used to do research and practical but must have limit and hide the client's identity. The counseling record such as interview note, test data, cassette, and video are confidential information. Every counselor need to put afford to rise the professional of counseling.

3. When the counselor has relationship with the client, such as family, good friend or emotional / sex, this will influence the decision that made by the counselor. This situation must be avoided or the counselor can stop the relationship with the client. If not, the client can get help from others counselor.
4. The counselor should try to stop counseling the client if he realize that the client does not get any benefit from him.

PART C : PERSONAL SERVICE

1. If members wanted to publish any advertisement to the public, one have to do it correctly. In the advertisement, it should state the type of service, skill, and training passes the technical involved.
 - (a) Degree or highest process.
 - (b) The necessary certificates and grades.
 - (c) The type of services.
2. Members are responsible to withdraw from counseling unless one is involved in the services not related to the rules of the ethic.

PART D : PERSONALITY SERVICE

If members providing service for the government institution, one has to inform the personnel about his or her responsibility, information, plans and training that they had undergo.

PART E : RESEARCH AND PUBLICATION

Every member (researcher) performing the research on human has to follow the ethics and be responsible to every step taken.

PART F : CONSULTATION

- Consultation refers to volunteer communication between the professional member with individual, group or social organization who needs help.
- Members should have high awareness at knowledge assess, dexterity and self limit. They also need to incriminate their self in help to change appearance connection between human and organization.

PART G : EXERCISE

1. Members should have responsibility to make or to organized program, create plan that can develop the skill, knowledge, understanding student self or give exercise to good student more semi professional or professional exercise.

PART H :

Member should explain the detail of the test, before and after the test so that the test is acceptable. The test should have it's reliability and accuracy. The purpose of the psychological test is to obtain the specific method and that can be understood.

THANK YOU